

CHARGES WHITMAN IS IN DEAL FOR TWO NEW JUDGES

Wagner Satisfied Governor and Bosses Have Got Together—Thompson Against Bill.

ALBANY, March 23.—Sharp debate, during which Gov. Whitman was criticised for the alleged improper use of the influence of his office, preceded the passage by the Senate to-day of the Horton bill, intended to provide for two additional Supreme Court Justices for the Eighth Judicial District.

Minority Leader Wagner said that "the bosses and the Governor had got together and agreed upon the new Justice."

"Do you mean to charge that the Governor entered into a deal?" asked Senator Slater.

"Well, 'deal' is your own word," replied Senator Wagner. "But if you think it too strong I'll call it an understanding and will add that I'm satisfied the Governor will accept the suggestions of the political leaders of the western and central part of the State in making the appointments."

Senator George F. Thompson, who resides in the Eighth Judicial District, opposed the measure. He contended that the extra Justices were unnecessary and that the provision providing for their appointment immediately was inserted to insure the election next year of the appointees agreed to.

SAGE'S BUDGET BILL GOES TO WHITMAN

Senate Passes Measure Requiring Governor to Submit Yearly Fiscal Statements.

ALBANY, March 23.—Senator Sage's Legislative Budget Bill was passed by the Senate without opposition to-day. The measure now goes to the Governor.

The bill would require the Governor to submit each year within a week after the convening of the Legislature a statement of the total amount of appropriations desired by each State department, together with an estimate of the State's probable revenues for the ensuing fiscal year. It would also continue the work of the financial committee throughout the year, and would provide sufficient time for consideration and full publicity of discussion of the various items.

$510,000 to Improve Newtown Creek.—WASHINGTON, March 23.—Appropriation of $510,000 for the further improvement of Newtown Creek at New York City and its tributaries, Dutch Kill, Magoth Creek and English Kill, was recommended to Congress to-day by the War Department.

MAYOR AND GEN. WOOD URGE 4,000 COLUMBIA STUDENTS TO PREPARE

Young Men Asked to Go to Plattsburg for Training This Summer.

The interest of Columbia University students on the question of preparation for war was shown to-day when 4,000 tried to pack themselves into Earle Hall to hear Mayor Mitchell and Gen. Leonard Wood speak on preparedness. Half of them were unable to gain admission. John R. Prentiss, captain of the Columbia crew in 1905, presided.

Mayor Mitchell, himself a Columbia man, urged the students to go to the Plattsburg Camp this summer. He said he was sorry Columbia had so small a representation there last summer. He told of the methods of training at Plattsburg, giving the day's programme, and said it was serious work.

"There could not be a healthier life," said the Mayor, "nor a pleasanter life than that led by the 1,500 men at Plattsburg last summer. The life made for better morals as well as improved physical characteristics. I have never seen 1,500 men under such clean conditions, morally and physically, nor non-annoyed by higher spirit of patriotism."

Gen. Wood told of the work in Plattsburg and said it was the desire of those interested in the movement to build up a reserve force of 50,000 officers. He urged the students to attend next summer.

"It is the strong, prepared nation," said the General, "which decides whether a question is to be settled by arbitration or war. We can be strong without being aggressive and can be prepared without being unjust. With war in the world we do not know how soon it may come to us and we do not want to be unready."

BOY OF 18 A CO-RESPONDENT

Mrs. Jessie Billingham in Counter Suit, Denies Husband's Charges.

Mrs. Jessie R. Billingham asked for $25 a week alimony and $750 counsel fee to-day before Justice Scudder in her counter divorce action against Frank L. Billingham, an instructor in the Brooklyn Manual Training School. Billingham charged her with misconduct with Joseph O'Leary, an eighteen-year-old boy.

Mrs. Billingham asserts O'Leary was an invalid with whose mother she boarded after her husband, so she charged, deserted her in 1912. The young man's mother became angry with him and turned him out one cold night in December, 1912, she says, and put her out, too, for siding with him. They found shelter in a Dean Street house, occupying separate rooms and at no time, she says, were they guilty of wrong doing.

In support of her counter suit, naming Elsie May Thiel of No. 753 Union Street, as co-respondent, Mrs. Billingham presents a confession she asserts was made voluntarily by Miss Thiel.

MYSTERY HINT IN DEATH OF WOMAN GROUNDLESS

Investigation Shows That Mrs. Ring Died of Heart Disease.

Coroner Riordan ordered a funeral postponed while he investigated to-day an anonymous hint that the death of Mrs. George L. Ring of No. 101 West Eighty-fourth Street Tuesday was not due to heart disease as stated in the death certificate.

Mrs. Ring, who was sixty-six years old, was the widow of a Consolidated Exchange broker who died by his own hand several years ago after a small fortune which she had inherited had been lost in speculation.

She was a sufferer from chronic heart trouble and had been attended twice a day for many months by Dr. Thomas A. Kenyon, of No. 42 West Seventy-second Street, whom she had made the executor of her will. The Rev. Alfred Duane Poll of the Church of the Resurrection, a distant relative and two nephews aided in caring for her.

The person who telephoned Coroner Riordan said Mrs. Ring's estate was of several hundred thousand dollars. Dr. Kenyon and her relatives said Mrs. Ring had for at least two years eked out a living by taking boarders and drawing on the principal of a savings bank account of from $5,000 to $10,000.

BREAD AND BUTTER EXTRA.

Philadelphia Hotel Men Plan to Make Guests Pay Ten Cents.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—Philadelphia are facing the prospect of paying for the bread and butter they receive with meals in restaurants and hotels. Statistics compiled to-day by six of the largest hotels indicate more than $200,000 is spent yearly for these items.

Hotel managers declare that in view of the steady rising prices of silverware, china and linens, let alone the staple products, steps are being contemplated to charge ten cents for bread and butter. To-morrow night the hotel men will hold a meeting at which it is said the question will be discussed.

President and Mrs. Wilson in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—President Wilson paid a brief visit to Philadelphia to-day to consult his oculist. His eyes have been troubling him slightly recently. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson. The President's automobile, as it was driven through crowded streets to the oculist's office, was preceded by a platoon of mounted police. The street in front of the oculist's office was cordoned off. Mr. Wilson's eyes were being examined, and when he and Mrs. Wilson came out they were greeted with cheers.

Carter Takes Office With an Open Mind.

ALBANY, March 23.—James M. Carter of Buffalo took office to-day as State Superintendent of Prisons, succeeding John H. Riley, removed by Gov. Whitman. Carter told callers he was taking up his new duties with an open mind and without any preconceived opinion on prison reform problems.

After familiarizing himself with the details of prison administration, he said, he intended to apply sound business methods for their solution.

WASTE PAPER MAKES SMOKY, STUBBORN FIRE

$75,000 Loss in Water Street Building of the New York Waste Paper Company.

Hundreds of home-going Brooklynites stood on the promenade of the Brooklyn Bridge early this morning and watched a $75,000 two-alarm fire which completely gutted the six-story building occupied by the New York Waste Paper Company, at Nos. 272-274 Water Street.

"It was one of the smokiest and also one of the stubbornest fires I ever tackled," declared Chief Kenyon. As a precautionary measure, about twenty-five Dwyer Street tenants were turned out.

MEXICAN BANDITS INDICTED.

Two Charged With Murdering Americans in Mexico.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., March 23.—Indictments were returned to-day against Lorenzo Lopez and Rafael Caballero, alleged Mexican bandits, charging them with the murder of Dr. E. H. McCain after a train wreck near here, Oct. 18, 1915.

Ramon Pizana, a brother of Amelito Pizana, supposed leader of the bandits now held in Matamoros, also was indicted, charged with the murder of Herbert McGuire, a United States soldier, at Los Tuleos Ranch, near here, in August.

Out of Work, Kills Himself on Brooklyn "L."

Joseph Greenwald, a tailor's operator of No. 1027 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, who had been out of work and was despondent, threw himself in front of a Myrtle Avenue train at Bridge Street, Brooklyn, to-day and was killed.

"HOW ABOUT KING?" AND EVERYBODY DUCKS

Legislators at Albany Skirted Alleged Lobbyist of Vice Trust Bills.

(Special to The Evening World.) ALBANY, N. Y., March 23.—Edward King, denounced by Police Commissioner Wood of New York City as lobbyist for the underworld vice trust bills now before the Legislature, appeared at the Capitol to-day and said: "This thing will all be settled up when I get to New York. I'll guarantee to go to your newspaper and clear up the whole matter satisfactorily."

But while King was saying this there was a scramble among legislators and State officials to disown and denounce the "best all-around good fellow" that Albany has seen in many years. He knew everybody, called the highest officials by their first names, had the easy access to many offices and the runs of both Senate and Assembly Chambers. As an entertainer he was the joy of the country legislators visiting New York City.

Assemblyman Everett of St. Lawrence County, who introduced the vice bills, was uneasy to-day about the exposure. He tried to defend his action but wanted to get out from under. "If they are good bills I am going to see that they are passed," he said, "but if they are bad bills I will be the one to beat them."

District Attorney Crosey of Kings County supplemented Police Commissioner Wood's exposure with a telegram to the Assembly Codes Committee, vigorously denouncing the proposed legislation as pernicious and designed to interfere with prosecution of offenders.

At the meeting of the Assembly Codes Committee this afternoon the Everett bills were killed. Nobody appeared in their behalf.

POLICE AGAIN CLUB RIOTOUS STRIKERS

Thousand Union Men Beset Three Hundred Workers and Trouble Follows.

A thousand strikers, marching in ranks, intercepted three hundred home-going workers in the National Biscuit Company's shops at Fifteenth Street and Tenth Avenue, this afternoon. The workers were hustled about and called for police aid. One hundred policemen waded into the crowd with their clubs, and for ten minutes there was a "grass thumping of heads and shoulders and a shrill chorus of protest. When the street was cleared the permission to picket in Tenth Avenue was revoked and a green police flag was set at each end of the block, to warn strikers to keep out.

SOCONY KERO-SCENES

"John!"

"Yes, my love."

"John, the kerosene can is empty."

"John! Did you hear me?"

"Yes, light of my life. You said 'The kerosene can is empty.' I am sincerely sorry that the kerosene can is empty."

"Yes, so am I, because you've got to go out and get it filled."

"John! John!"

"Yes, my love. Can I get it filled at the grocery on the corner?"

"No, you can't. I don't know anything about their kerosene? You've got to go down the street to Smith Bros. They carry SOCONY Kerosene."

"But, my love, be reasonable. Isn't all kerosene alike?"

"Yes, it isn't. There is as much difference in kerosene as there is in eggs. Get SOCONY Kerosene—it's the Standard Oil Company of New York's best grade of refined oil."

"Yes, my love. SOCONY, you say?"

"Yes, SOCONY. Look for the SOCONY sign on the store window. Mind you don't come back with anything else. And hurry!"

"Yes, my love."
